

Gourmand, Outsider, Captures $1,500 Agriers Handicap on Muddy Track at New Orleans

King's Champion, the Favorite, Finishes Last in Field of Six

Pastoral Swain and Rep Run Second and Third, Respectively; Day Lilly, an 8-to-1 Shot, Easily Wins Diplomat Purses From Who Cares

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 27.—Gourmand, a six-year-old English-bred gelding owned by J. Phillips and quoted at 4 to 1 in the betting, raced a field into submission at the Fair Grounds this afternoon and won the $1,500 Agriers Claiming Handicap. The result was a decided upset, for the talent went to King's Champion, which closed an 8 to 5 favorite, but finished absolutely last. Pastoral Swain was second, a length behind the winner, and Rep was third.

Six went to the post in the feature, and an eighth, Herd Girl, taking the lead at the outset, but dropping back to nowhere when Rep challenged and went to the front. Cimarmon followed the pacemaker closely, while Gourmand was rated away back by "Chick" Lang. Turning into the stretch Rep cracked and Cimarmon went into the lead.

Meanwhile, Lang had moved Gourmand into third place, and when they reached out for the final dash the head gelding came with a rush and sweeping away. Pastoral Swain finished strong and took the place from Rep.

The Diplomat Purses resulted in another upset, the winner turning up in an 11 to 1 shot, Day Lilly, a four-year-old, Columbia gelding, which was the only one to finish all the way. Who Cares and Lumpy, equal favorites, were second and third, respectively.

The results: First race (for three-year-olds and upward, claiming, purse $1,000, six furlongs)—Gourmand, 100 (Phillips), 4 to 1; Pastoral Swain, 100 (Phillips), 8 to 5; Rep, 100 (Phillips), 8 to 5; Herd Girl, 100 (Phillips), 10 to 1; Day Lilly, 100 (Phillips), 11 to 1; Who Cares, 100 (Phillips), 8 to 1; Lumpy, 100 (Phillips), 8 to 1.
